United States Cents.

- 4.00 742 1793; wreath; 2 leaves of the twig incline to right; word "Liberty" small; uncirculated; beautiful light olive with portions of original brightness; no marks of corrosion; about the finest cent of this date I have ever seen and certainly the finest one I have ever had; Levick No. 8; Frossard No. 8; extremely rare in this condition.
 37.00 743 1793; wreath; leaves of twig nearly at right angles; word "Liberty" small; uncirculated; brown; sharp strong impression; surface is smoothly and evenly oxidized; very rare and desirable in this condition; Levick No. 7; rev., F. Frossard No. 7.
 1.50 744 1793; wreath; 2 leaves of the twig incline to the right, but are thicker; hair is much thicker and does not flow so far back as in No. 742; word "Liberty" small; the Y in "Liberty" is similar to the letter X; this is a very difficult cent to find in fine condition; the condition of this is about fine; light olive; very rare; Levick No. 5; Frossard No. 5.
 6.00 745 1793; wreath; leaves thick and nearly at right angles; bears a strong resemblance to No. 744, but the word "Liberty" is very large, like the chain variety, and the date is also larger than any other of the wreath cents; this is in fine condition for this piece, much finer than usually found, but with these drawbacks the reverse is somewhat oxidized and there is a small piece out of edge under the date; I think this is the rarest variety of the wreath cents; Levick No. 4; Frossard No. 4.
 9.00 746 1793; wreath; edge lettered "One hundred for a dollar;" hair a little rubbed, but otherwise fine; very seldom found any finer; light olive; has a slight indentation beneath the 7 in date; very rare; Levick No. 9; Frossard No. 9.
 9.00 747 1793; Chain or Link Cent; wide date; no period after date; rev., "America;" the head is rubbed, but otherwise it is a bold strong impression; evenly struck and in very good condition; very rare and desirable for any cabinet; Levick No. 1; Frossard No. 1.
 11.25 748 1793; Liberty cap; a little worn and slightly specked, but really one of the best I have ever seen and is particularly desirable on account of its being a light olive, a very unusual color for the Liberty cap 1793; very rare; Levick No. 10; Frossard No. 11.

- 216 749 1794; Maris No. 8; very fine; brown; shows the crack from hair to edge very distinctly; very scarce.
- 25 750 1794; pyramidal head; Maris No. 10; the word "Liberty" is very weak, portions scarcely showing; otherwise this is a beautiful, fine, sharp, light olive cent.
- 20 751 1794; searred head; Maris No. 12; hair slightly rubbed; crack through the L in "Liberty;" very fine and desirable; brown.
- 160 752 1794; the ornate; Maris No. 17; somewhat weak impression in some places, but the head and hair struck bold and sharp; fine; scarce.
- 250 753 1794; the Star Cent; not described in Dr. Maris' work on the 1794 Cents; particular attention has only lately been called to this variety, but diligent search has been made by all numismatists for it among their duplicates; as yet only four have been discovered, of which this is one; the obverse is very fair, showing everything distinct; the reverse, which has the circle of some 80 or more stars around the edge near the milling, is unfortunately poor, showing only about one half the stars; however, it is extremely rare and very desirable.
- 425 754 1795; thick planchet; edge lettered; word "Liberty," date and reverse are very boldly struck; head, however, is weak, but still very good for date; very scarce.

- 162 758 1796; Liberty cap; 6 distant from bust; a very good evenly struck impression, but unfortunately a little corroded; still a desirable specimen.
- 555 759 1796; fillet head; bold, sharp, barely circulated impression; slightest possible rub on hair back of forehead; beautiful brown; a little spotted on reverse; very rare in this condition.
- 1300 760 1797; knob to 9 in date; rev., wreath has 12 berries; strictly uncirculated; sharp and beautiful; light olive, with portions of bright color still lingering; very rare in this condition.

- 15 762 1797; indented edge (a new discovery); these dents on the edge were caused by the piece being held by clamps while being struck, this was done previous to the collar being used; poor, but scarce.
- 900 763 1798; 9 lower than rest of date; evenly struck; bold impression; uncirculated; beautiful brown; very rare in this condition; desirable.

- 3300 764 1799; strong impression, both obverse and reverse, showing all the lines of the hair evenly struck, with the word "Liberty" and date all on the piece and well struck (a very unusual condition for this date); in fact, it is the finest 1799 cent I have ever possessed and I think as fine as I have ever seen; excessively rare in this condition.
